

To pay you tribute, we were inspired by letters of your first name :
C-H-R-I-S-T-O-P-H-E-R

- C - Nobody can question your Charisma, your deserving natural authority Of a big choirmaster
- H - You handled the "English-style" Humor of course: always seriousness but always provoking and derisive, all this to relax the atmosphere when we were a little bit in trouble
- R - We appreciated your Rigor, which was source of progress, for us Chorus-singers
- I - Your Intransigence allowed each of us to surpass itself, to show itself to improve our level of which we are proud today
- S - You were always Worried (= « Soucieux » in french) about the quality of our services and during concerts you showed him by encouraging "grimaces", without knowing public naturally, on whom you turned the back!
- T - You were modest but which Talent!
- O - Your temperament? A real "Hurricane" (= « Ouragan » in french) of energy, ambition, faith in us
- P – Projects, you had height of it the head, you already spoke about the program of Christmas 2018...
- H - Too Happy that you were to blackmail us of the John Rutter, your composer idol
- E - Oh you had a lot of Requirement (= « Exigence in french »), there is only to see the list of the new Christmas carols: and not only from English but from Latin, from Spanish, ouch ouch ouch our small grey cells!
- R - Christopher we Regret you, we miss you already, you have us wanted many efforts and work but as we are happy and proud of the result...

Your friends of « Choir of Lary »

Read by Jean-Yves
Written by Martine

